

An in house treadmill and super slow mo camera allows the highly qualified physiotherapists at TRP Physiotherapy Fairfield and Smithfield assess the movement at the ankle, knee, hip and back.

Images are taken from the Side, front and back to assess the problem in a 3D way.

Over striding, over pronation, heavy landing are just some of the examples that this technology can pick up.

Orthotics may be required to help correct some of these issues.